

IT'S TIME TO REGISTER FOR THE FFGG'S THREE MINUTE THESIS COMPETITION!

This year again, the Faculty of Forestry, Geography and Geomatics (FFGG), in collaboration with the SSF, the CFR, the CRMR and the CRDIG are organizing the faculty « three minute thesis » competition which will take place during the Research Day of the Forest Science Week!

This edition will take place on March 18, 2024, starting at 5h p.m., in the Abitibi-Price cafeteria.

Who can participate?

Master's and PhD students as well as postdoctoral fellows from the Faculty of Forestry, Geography and Geomatics (FFGG). If you are part of a faculty research center (CRMR, CFR, CRDIG, CEN), but you come from another Faculty, you can participate, but you cannot represent the FFGG at the institutional competition.

Why participate?

In addition to improving their popularization skills, the first-place PhD student (Francophone contest) will be selected for the institutional finals to participate in The Acfas « Three Minute Thesis » competition. The first-place master's or doctoral student (Anglophone contest) will be selected for the institutional final to represent Laval University at CAGS/ACÉS regional final. And on top of all that, you could win one of three $180 prizes!

How do I register?

You have until March 6, 2024 to register via this registration form. Register quickly... registrations are limited!

Please note that the details of the event and the rules are in the registration form.

If you have any questions, please contact Sauphie Senneville.

We look forward to seeing many of you there! Thank you for sharing this email with your research teams!
